FOUNDING PRINCIPAL AT HOLY TRINITY

Introducing the principal for Sunbury's newest school!

Experienced principal Krystine Hocking has been announced as the founding principal for a new school opening in Sunbury for the start of the 2019 school year.

Construction of Holy Trinity Catholic Primary School is underway and progressing smoothly, and Krystine is looking forward to interviewing for staff and families to attend the new school.

Krystine is excited to have the opportunity to develop a school that is "creative and vibrant, providing a welcoming, positive learning environment".

She is passionate about empowering and equipping the students of Holy Trinity with the skills and dispositions to be lifelong learners, successful and active members of society.

The new school is located in Mitchells Lane, Sunbury. Families interested in learning more are encouraged to register their interest via the school website or email below.
